

Infrastructure description

The udagram application is a simple application that includes all the major components of a Full-Stack web application. Udagram application is composed of:

1. udagram-frontend: this is an angular application hosted in S3 bucket service provided by AWS.
2. udagram-api: this is an express application hosted in elastic beanstalk service provided by AWS.
3. postgresSQL database : this database is created using RDS provided by AWS.